

Removing the "established business relationship" qualification from the fax regulations is bad for business; that a membership relationship should serve as prior consent to active communication; and that numerous concerns about the new regulations remain, including exactly which transmissions the FCC would interpret as commercial in nature, whether written consent to a national association would extend to chapter or affiliate faxes, and whether a written consent form would expire with membership, for example.